

A step-free route to the London Eye from Waterloo Underground Station

1

At Waterloo Underground Station there is step-free access between the Jubilee Line platforms and the ticketing office.

If you need assistance call 08456 050404 (it is a good idea to phone before going).

From the lift turn right to go to the Jubilee Line ticketing hall

Go through the ticket barrier and take the exit on the left.

You will go under some railway bridges and pass Jimmy's Tea Bar on the left (the yellow café).

Cross at the zebra crossing. The Imax cinema should be on your right. You will pass railway arches.

2

When you are opposite the Imax you come to the last railway arch. (It is near a bus stop.) Turn left and go under the railway arch.

You will come to a zebra crossing. Cross to the middle island.

At the middle island turn right and cross the zebra crossing straight ahead of you.

On your left is another zebra crossing. Cross here to get to the corner of York Road.

You will go by the Shell Centre on your right. Keep going under the footbridge.

There are 2 pelican crossings after the Shell Centre. Use the second crossing

Turn right to go down Chichley Street. You will pass the Slug and Lettuce Bar.

At the end of Chichley Street cross over to get onto Belvedere Road.

You will reach a flat paved area in front of the London Eye.

On the left is a step-free entrance to the Ticket Office. (There are also steps to this entrance)
